

Whitehall, Sept. 14. 1697.

This Morning came in a Mail from Holland.

---

Published by Authority.

---

Warsaw, Sep. 3. N. S.

Affairs here continue in the same posture which our former Letters gave an account of. The French Party are resolved to stand by one another, pursuant to their late Act of Confederacy, and impatiently expect the Prince of Cony's arrival; The Elector of Saxony's Coronation remains fixed for the 15th of this Month; and when that is over, he intends to march hither, and to declare all those that oppose him Traitors and Enemies of their Country; In the mean time the Commissioners that were sent to the Army, have adjusted matters with them, and begun to pay their Arrears.

Vienna Sep. 7. The last Advices from Hungary say, the Turkish Army consisting of seventy thousand Men were moving towards Peter-Waradin, with intention to attack that place; and that the Imperial Army being joyned by the Forces under the Command of General Rabutin were marching towards the Enemy.

Mentz, Sep. 15. The Germans have begun to batter the Castle of Ebernburg with Cannon and Mortars; and the French Army by our last Letters lay encamped within 4 or 5 Leagues of them.

Paris, Sep. 16. They write from Barcelona of the 5th Instant, that the French Troops had passed the River Lobregate, and were gone into quarters thereabouts. Several Ships of Monsieur Chasteau Renants Squadron, are disarmed at Brest, the rest to the number of 7 are in the Road ready to Sail, and will be joyned by 2 others.

Brussels, Sept. 18. The Armies continue in the same Camps. The Elector of Bavaria has been at Antwerp to confer with Don Quirós the Spanish Plenipotentiary, who is since returned to the Hague.

Hague, Sep. 20. After divers Conferences the Peace was signed this night between the Ambassadors of the King of England, Spain, and the States-General on one side, and the Ambassadors of France on the other; The Emperor's Ambassadors were not ready to sign, expecting further Orders; and time is allowed them till the first of November to come in.

An Express is Hourly expected from the Hague with a particular account of the Conclusion of the Peace.

---

Printed by Edward Jones in the Savoy, 1697.

14 September 1697